Cultural Engagement Instead of Social Isolation

Creative Ageing

www.muenchen.de/ creativeageing

Partner cities

Experiencing

Discussing

Visiting

Celebrating

Project findings

The survey

Europe-wide survey among city officials within the EuroCities network

BERLIN

Responses

Structural key takeaways

City Guidelines

66% of these culture-related guidelines do not define elderly people

Structural key takeaways

Thematic key takeaways

low cultural capital lack of intergenerational offers from passive to active citizen declining memory not being invited digital equipment clear language sophistication self exclusion education cross-over policies vision dementia digital services marketing mobility accessibility financial issues lack of mediation security many different activities communication physical challenges technology cognitive difficulties communication targeting younger people confidence hearing lack of self esteem intention to consider older people as useful

The public conference

Recommendations for policymakers

Inclusive and accessible cultural facilities and activities

Shifts in age dynamics

Visibility of creative ageing

Intergenerational exchange

Digital Engagement

Research

Recommendations for policymakers

Cross-sectoral cooperation

Upskilling

Cross-sectoral funding

Cultural prescriptions

Inclusion as a longterm investment

Policy guidelines

Explanatory video for good practice

Thank you for your attention!

All documents and videos:

muenchen.de/creativeageing

